

ERWAIN ESCAPES

Letting you and nature just be rus-tic adj /'rʌstɪk/

What defines rustic?
relating to the countryside; rural having a simplicity and charm that is considered typical of the countryside or rustic rolling farmland made of untrimmed branches or rough timber; rustic furniture appropriate to the country; as in plainness or sturdiness (i.e., heavy rustic boots)

In an effort to prepare guests for a stay with us at Erwain Escapes, we've curated an overview of what awaits and what you'll experience

What to look forward to:

- Little to no WIFI and perhaps a tad sporadic
- No Television
- Dark skies, so little outdoor lighting, just natural light from the night sky or full moon
- The odd visitor from time to time. A crafty Fox, an intrigued Badger sniffing round or a Deer may decide to bed down nearby for the night
- An owl twit twoo as it perches itself on the sedum roof before flying off on its nightly prowl, a dawn chorus alarm call, crickets chirping and frogs croaking from the long grass
- Sounds of neighbouring farm animals, cattle on a ramble through the village and Farmers out for the day in their tractors
- Beetles or a spider scuttling around in the wood piles and occasional midges
- Celtic rainforests couple well with showers and with showers comes a few boggy and marshy areas at times

rural adj /'rʊərə(ə)l/What defines rural?
in, relating to, or characteristic of the countryside rather than the town.

of, relating to, or characteristic of the country, country life, or country people; rustic: rural tranquillity living in the country: the rural population of or relating to agriculture: rural economy

glamping /'glæmpɪŋ/
What defines glamping?
a form of camping involving accommodation and facilities more luxurious than those associated with traditional camping
a fusion of glamour and camping, allows you to live in nature on your own terms
'likely to satisfy any city person seeking a little refuge in nature—without foregoing any of life's luxuries

But ah there are so many reasons to stay here:

- A fully self-contained luxury cabin set in a 5 acre picturesque wild flower meadow for you to exclusively enjoy and hideaway whilst you relax, unwind and experience a digital detox whilst picking up that book you've been meaning to read
- Immerse yourself in nature, switch off and lose yourself as you sit or picnic by the river listening to the sound of trickling water as it meanders along its river bed or the white noise when in full flow
- Tiptoe through the Bluebells that carpet the river bank during spring
- Spot a baby trout swimming downstream or watch dancing dragons and damselflies in the sunlight
- Drift off in a hammock listening to insects gently drone in the background or bird song from up above
- Wander through our wild meadow, managed for its biodiversity. See what rare flora and fauna you can find, visit the pond, you may even spot a water vole
- See Red Kites, Buzzards and other birds of prey catching the thermals and soaring overhead and you may catch a glimpse of who's taken up residence in one of the 130 Bird Boxes we have sited around
- Marvel at the most spectacular rainbows and sunsets over the surrounding verdant hillsides
- Treat yourself to a BBQ and be dazzled by star bedecked dark skies as you drift off across the Milky way
- See glow worms around our country lanes, which also helps give us the most wonderful starry vistas
- Sit around a firepit toasting marshmallows or relax and unwind with a glass of wine as you cosy up in front of the wood burner and take in the magic of the day
- Restore your mind, body and soul with a little bit of indulgence, soaking away the hours in the sunken outdoor bath
- And if that wasn't enough, we are situated in a quaint and welcoming hamlet where you can take a trip back in time visiting the Cwmdu Inn, shop and post office just a short walk away. Truly one-of-a-kind
